Yvonne started singing in public in 2006 and shortly after she started writing and singing her own music. Yvonne had been singing all her life, participating in church choir, school chorus, and high school musicals. Often singing special music at church, originally using accompaniment CDs, she later learned to play the guitar so she could accompany herself. She found a passion in making music for the Lord. In fall of 2008, her children, Jacob and Sarah, began playing with her. Together, they make up B9 Fate. You can be a part of our Music Mission by being a prayer warrior. B9 Fate is working on new music for a 3rd CD. Some of the new songs are found on Yvonne's Indie Heaven site.

Yvonne Hartman is a Christian singer/songwriter from Oley, PA. She has written over 30 songs and has two finished CDs, "When The Goin' Gets Tough", 2007, and "I Give My Life To You", 2008. Yvonne and the band are currently working on a 3rd CD.

Yvonne began writing music in 2006 shortly after starting to sing in public. Taking inspiration from her life and the lives of those around her, the songs she writes have special meaning. She tries to write songs with inspiring messages and likes to write to those that are lost or are searching. Yvonne's children, Jacob and Sarah, began helping with their mother's music mission in the fall of 2008.
